

My shopping bag would have been purchased to hold a baby gift for a working mother, as depicted by the baby items in a high heeled shoe decorating the bag. My quilt reflects the balancing act required of all working mothers to juggle the responsibilities of career and family. "Balancing Act" is machine pieced, machine embroidered, machine quilted and hand appliquéd from an original design.