

I attended the Carol Doak class and made the block. Since there are no more walls in my house to hang a quilt, I decided to make it into a tote, one can never have too many totes.