

This pattern by Marsha McCloskey is definitely fascinating to me. This is the fourth Vintage Moment I have made. The first two used 30's fabrics, the third was a floral from the Sentimental Journey line. This fourth Vintage Moments is made from the Amelia's Gardens line. I made this for my granddaughter for when she graduates from high school. Since she is only two years old, I am definitely ahead of the game for once!! However, I have 4 more grandchildren to make quilts for so I am not finished yet.
