

I used the blocks I made from the Quilt Corner's 3rd Saturday program to make this quilt. I didn't want to do a typical "3 x 4" setting. I used a block from Quilt Maven's "Perfect Paper Piecing" book to create the center, then set the quilt on point. I added black triangles to give the eye a place to rest. I quilted it using Superior silver metallic and Signature thread.