

" A Little Pickle" was the result of an in-store challenge that supplied 25 - 6" squares of fabric - you could add as many other fabrics as you cared to as long as the original 25 were used. The arcs are foundation pieced, there's a little hand quilting and some machine quilting. It won third place at the store, out of 21 entries.